WE NEED YOUR HELP!! Since we are off all next week, we need someone to help care for our chickens!

Sedalia Elementary is looking for extraordinary chicken enthusiasts for the weekend and break care throughout the school year. Please email Rochelle.Sheffield@dcsdk12.org if you are interested but not sure what to do. We can set up a time to go over the things that need to be done to take care of our friends.

Here is a look at some of the things we do:

Morning Care (Anytime between 6-10 am): Letting chickens out, checking food and water levels, checking for eggs and placing in carton in coop, and saying "Good Morning" to our happy ladies!

Evening Care (Anytime between 4-6 pm): Checking for eggs, letting the girls back in for the night and locking them up tight, then singing them a lullaby before you go!

Click below to sign up and review available slots. If you are able to do both the morning and evening care for a day, please feel free to do so!
